SARATOGA'S FILLY STAKES

MALACHITE PROVES VICTRESS IN THIRTY-SIXTH ALABAMA STAKES.

Watertown Captures Another Steeplechase—Royalist Wins for Mr. Sanford—W. J. Young Takes His First Race of Meeting with Bingen.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 10.—August Belmont's three-year-old filly Malachite accounted for the long-established Alabama Stakes at one mile and an eighth, run today for the thirty-sixth time, over the best of her age that could be mustered. She was held in high esteem by the speculators and, at the weights, was much the best, but during the early running gave her supporters much concern, being cut off repeatedly, and was finally forced to be taken to the outside, thereby losing much ground. She finished with rare gameness and drew out in the last sixteenth to beat Sprint easily, with Jacoba leading the others. Kathleen showed high speed in the early running, but her heavy impost of 126 pounds, coupled with a dislike for the loose sandy track here, caused her to tire in the stretch racing.

Today's was the thirty-sixth running of the Alabama Stakes, the condensed history of which is as follows:

Discontinued from 1893 to 1901. *Stamina finished first, but was disqualified for foul. Until 1901 the distance was 1 1-8 miles. In 1901, 1902 and 1903 it was 1 1-16 miles; in 1905, 1 5-16 miles; in 1904 and 1906, 1 1-8 miles. No racing in 1911 and 1912.

Gwyn Tompkins accounted for another of the steeplechases when Watertown came home in advance of Stonewood after a spirited duel that lasted for practically the final round of the field. Otto Floto, which had been a leader for part of the way, eliminated himself when he ran out of the course at the tenth hedge. Northwood, the other starter, had lost his rider at the first obstacle. Otto Floto resumed the course at the point where he had run out and finished in time for third money.

Cloudy weather and a refreshing breeze made for ideal racing conditions and was responsible for a big attendance. Betting action, particularly in the clubhouse, was brisk throughout the afternoon. Those with a liking for favorites began in auspicious fashion when Royalist won the opener. Defense's victory in the third race was gained in sensational style, as she stumbled soon after the start and had to go all around the others, ultimately wearing Serenest down in the stretch.

W. J. Young won his first purse of the meeting when Bingen beat a band of maiden youngsters in easy fashion in the fifth race. He was entered to be sold for $700 and H. Fink secured him on his bid of $1,100.

Dr. Williams arrived last night from his farm near Hopkinsville, Ky., in advance of his twelve yearlings, sired by Zeus, that will be sold at auction here next Monday.

The younger stable attaches here will participate in an indoor athletic exhibition tomorrow night at the Y. M. C. A., under the latter's auspices, and that of a delegation of trainers, including W. H. Karrick, J. Simon Healy, Frank Regan, T. J. Healey and H. Lewis. The affair is engaging considerable attention and promises to be well attended.

A. B. Hancock, well-known owner and proprietor of the Ellerslie Stud, was among today's arrivals.

Jockey A. Collins sustained an injury to his foot last night, by being crowded against the fence while astride Killanna. It will keep him out of the saddle for several days.

Jockey T. McTaggart was at the track this afternoon and stated that he would take a rest for a few months, with the exception of riding several horses in stakes where the weights are sufficiently high to eliminate the necessity of reducing. He weighs at present 120 pounds but expects to return to the saddle next fall and ride at a lighter weight.

R. A. Smith, who at one time campaigned the well known Articulate and other crack racers, contemplates a return to the ranks of owners and is in quest of some material to form the nucleus of a good stable.

William A. Pinkerton who has been confined to his room with a slight attack of erysipelas was reported much improved today and will be about again within the next few days.

Mrs. J. Shilling secured at private sale this morning the mare Nephthys from C. D. Sullivan. The mare will be shipped with others in the stable to Kentucky.

Seven yearlings belonging to John W. Schorr were sent to Lexington this morning to be broken and given their early racing lessons.

Henry McDaniel came over from Fort Erie this morning to look over some of the yearlings that will be offered for sale beginning next Saturday.

Senator Ollie James, Joseph L. Rhinock, Charles F. Murphy and Congressman Hefferman of Mississippi were among the clubhouse visitors.

The wife of jockey John McTaggart was removed from the hospital this morning to her home, seemingly out of danger and steadily improving.

G. R. Tompkins received a letter this morning from former jockey John Kermath, at present at Saranac, stating that he was rapidly regaining his health.

John T. Ireland, who recently returned to the ranks of the owners, won his first purse when Juliet galloped home first in the sixth race by a big margin. Entered for $400, she was bid up to $805 and bought in.

GREAT PLUNGERS OF THE PAST.

Transactions in Which Famous English Owners Figured and Not Always Creditably.

There is no such betting now as was transacted in the fifties and sixties and in the early seventies, says the sporting writer of Truth. The last really great stake which was landed over this race—the Cesarewitch—was won by Rosebery, and two years earlier F. Swindell had backed the Truth gelding to win $500,000 by a long course of dexterous, but perfectly unscrupulous, maneuvering. Mr. Swindell won a huge stake over Dulcibella, which had been tried a certainty, and she came in alone.

There was an immense win over Lecturer, Lord Hastings himself clearing $400,000, while the total winnings of "the party" were not less than $650,000. When the weights for the Cesarewitch of 1866 were published Lord Hastings considered that his horses had been unfairly treated by Admiral Rous, and they were all struck out. Lecturer was not included in the lot, as he had been nominated for some reason or another by the well-known Peter Wilkinson. Everything in those days was utterly chaotic and hugger-mugger in the department of ownership and partnership, but under the present rules Lecturer would surely have been disqualified.

The most sensational race was that won by Lioness, as it led to unpleasant developments which had far-reaching results. Colonel Ouseley Higgins, who was one of the most popular members of the Jockey Club set, had been for some time on intimate terms with James Merry. He was consulted as to the running of Mr. Merry's horses and was quite behind the scenes in the stable tactics. Lioness was systematically "steadied" with a view to her winning the Cesarewitch, the coup having been for several months in contemplation, but on this occasion not only was Colonel Higgins kept in the dark, but he maintained that he had been deliberately misled and that, not only had he been put off backing the mare himself, but he had prevented many of his acquaintances from supporting her.

Mr. Merry, as was said of a celebrated turf tactician, had been "as sly as a fox and as mute as a mackerel." The fact was that he gave his commission to a shrewd man, who undertook it only on receiving a most solemn promise that not a word should be uttered in recommendation of Lioness until the numbers were up. Mr. Merry carefully held his tongue and, although Lioness was obviously being backed for a great deal of money, neither Colonel Higgins nor anyone else received a particle of encouragement from the owner.

When the numbers were hoisted, Mr. Merry looked out for Colonel Higgins, but in those days it was easy for men to miss each other at Newmarket just before such a big race. One would be in the Birdcage and the other might be at the ring, or in the crowd of horsemen, or in a carriage by the ropes. Mr. Merry met Lord Stamford, who was galloping to the ring, and begged him, if he saw Colonel Higgins, to tell him to be sure to make Lioness a winner.

However, the tip did not arrive in time, and directly after Lioness had won easily, Colonel Higgins galloped up to Mr. Merry's carriage, almost speechless with fury, and assailed him publicly with a rich flow of invective, including such epithets as are commonly associated with Ananias and Barabbas. Lord Stamford, who came up during the attack, vainly attempted to explain away matters, but Colonel Higgins was implacable, and vowed that only "satisfaction" would compensate for his grievances.

Mr. Merry did not relish the prospect of standing opposite a bloodthirsty Irishman who was known to be a sure shot, and later in the day Lord Stamford was sent to confer with Colonel Higgins with much the same secret instructions as were given by Lord Steyne to Mr. Wenham when he deputed him to meet Colonel Rawdon Crawley. Happily, the offer was referred for final decision to Admiral Rous and Mr. George Payne, whose strong common sense and fine tact enabled them to patch up what Lord Beaconsfield has defined as "a bad-tempered understanding."

The episode caused a great fuss at Newmarket, but it was kept very quite, as people were not in those days so fond of proclaiming quarrels and scandals as they are now. It was this unfortunate affair which prevented Mr. Merry from being elected a member of the Jockey Club.

A few years afterwards his name was to be put forward, but Admiral Rous and Lord George Manners advised the proposer and seconder to withdraw the candidate, as it was absolutely certain that he would be blackballed. Admiral Rous was sensibly averse to subjecting a man of Mr. Merry's position on the turf to a public snub, as it might very likely have caused him to sell his stud and give up racing altogether. In those days the names of candidates for the Jockey Club were published in the Calandar before the ballot, so if a man was blackballed every one knew of his failure.

There was a great to-do about 1867 when the late Duke of Hamilton was blackballed for the Jockey Club, and not only did the welkin ring with the indignation of the candidate's friends, but Admiral Rous pointed out the absurdity and folly of rejecting a candidate of unexceptionable position who raced on a very large scale. At that time, however, there was a positive craze for blackballing at Newmarket, and a certain clique vowed to keep out of the club any candidate connected with "the city." Lord Glasgow nearly always put in a black ball, and for years one of the great objects of his life was to keep Colonel Forester out of the Jockey Club.

ENCOURAGING TO CANADIAN BREEDERS.

Provision of Races Exclusively for Dominion-Bred Horses Bringing Valuable Results.

Detroit, Mich., August 10.—Evidence of the development of the thoroughbred industry in Canada is seen in the large number of nominations for the first half of the Double Event for Dominion-bred foals, to be run on the fourth day of the Windsor Jockey Club's meeting, August 19. This race is one of the two most important futurities framed for Canadian-bred horses, the other being the three-year-old race, which was decided at the meeting across the river last month. For the two-year-old race next week there are forty-four youngsters eligible. They are: Censor, Detention, Signal, Ladder of Light, McCorburn, Dave Campbell, Gay Life, Gay Knight, Tarahera, Minnetonka, Rex Gaiety, Praline, Oriana, Bavarde, Banyan, Lone Hand, Corbie, Good Words, Border River, Ambassador, Hillspring, Hornet, Outlaw, Isabelle M., Tyrone, Luminate, Recorder, Athena, Sister's Pet, J. W. Hurley, Britannia, Love Lock, Pinkerton, Wishaway, Torment, True Shot, Impress, Galley Head, Sturdee, Gold Galore, Silk Rustle, Maid of Somerset and Gala Dress.

In this group may be found the names of frequent winners on the Canadian circuit this season. Silk Rustle and Galley Head, owned by J. E. Seagram, have been good winners, while Britannia, bred and campaigned by the Thorncliffe Stable, seemed almost invincible early in the year. Tarahera and Isabella M., the former carrying the Brookdale Stable's colors and the latter bred by J. Hendricks, are two other fast youngsters that have ran many good races since last May.

Three years ago the Dominion-bred two-year-olds that could cover five-eighths in as fast time as 1:03 might be counted on the fingers of one's hand, without taking the thumb in the enumeration, but there are a dozen or more that can travel the route in better time than 1:01⅘ this year. This all shows how rapidly the Dominion breeders are progressing in thoroughbred breeding.

At the present rate the youngsters produced across the border will be able to hold their own with their swift brothers and sisters bred in the United States. The owners in Canada are going at the business in an enthusiastic manner and are inspired in their home breeding by the daily race on the program, conditioned exclusively for Dominion-bred horses.

The Double Event, the first half of which is to be run next week, is one of the most pretentious stakes on the Windsor Jockey Club's program. It will be worth $2,000 and more to the winner, while valuable plate goes to the breeder of the winner. In the event of the same youngster winning the second half of the race next summer as three-year-olds $1,000 additional to the original $1,500 added by the club goes to the winner.

The distance of the first half of this race is five-eighths of a mile.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF.

Old Eylers, one of John E. Madden's juveniles, is credited with a five-eighths work-out in 23, 34⅘, 47⅘, 1:01.

August Belmont's Hourless and James Butler's Ivory Black are being pointed for the Saratoga Special, to be run Saturday.

Harry Payne Whitney's Bellringer worked five-eighths in 1:00⅘ between races at Saratoga a day or two ago and is accounted one of the best of the Whitney juveniles.

Louis Tauber has arrived at New York to take in charge a shipment of thoroughbreds due from Europe for Jefferson Livingston. They will be shipped to Kentucky forthwith.

Blanks have been issued for nominations to the Piping Rock Subscription Steeplechase, a private sweepstakes which closed last August for the years 1915, 1916, 1917. The list of subscribers includes practically all the prominent stables in the country and the distance is three miles. Each subscriber is permitted to name two horses, only one of which may start, the one selected being named forty-five minutes before post time on the day of the race.

Patrons of racing at Dufferin Park Tuesday witnessed something that perhaps never was seen on any other race track before, when they saw the sire, dam and foal all run on the one day and all in the colors of the one owner. The unique instance referred to is that of Tixieledi, a three-year-old filly, which ran in the first race. This filly is by Van Bu, which ran in the seventh race, and is out of Maude Ledi, a contestant in the last race. All are owned by N. B. Sutherland.

Christopher J. Fitz Gerald has been appointed judge of the special class for the best yearlings as sired by Breeding Bureau stallions, to be exhibited at the Syracuse State Fair, September 1. This prize is $500 and is for the best yearling as sired by Breeding Bureau stallions which were exhibited at agricultural fairs or horse shows in 1915, and were awarded first, second and third prizes. There are twenty-one yearlings by Breeding Bureau stallions entered and the class should prove an attractive one.

Bartlett McLennan, of Montreal, who for many years raced an extensive stable of jumpers on the New York tracks, and who was one of the first to go from Canada to the front in France, has been in a hospital in London for several weeks recovering from severe injuries received while with his regiment. He was literally blown from his horse in a charge in a severe artillery attack from the German batteries, but fortunately escaped with a badly shattered knee.

The Atlantic Transport liner, Mongolia, which is expected to arrive at New York this week, is bringing fifty thoroughbreds from England. Of these fifteen are for A. P. Humphrey, Jr., and eight for Jefferson Livingston, while it is not improbable that a large portion of the equine cargo will be consigned to Grant Hugh Browne, who has been a liberal buyer of yearlings and two-year-olds at the Newmarket Autumn sales. It is probable that should Mr. Browne's thoroughbreds come over on the Mongolia the yearlings will be sent to his farm at Goshen, N. Y., for the present and later transferred to one or other of the Long Island tracks for their early lessons in racing.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

Communications without names and addresses will not be noticed nor answered. No answers will be sent by mail and none by wire unless reply prepayment is made at time of wiring query.

C. W. B., Cincinnati, O. Have no knowledge of the character of the man.

W. C. J., Chicago. Certainly. In the mutuels when there are place and show prices against the placed horses you may be sure there is place and show against every unplaced horse.

J. J. K., Lexington, Ky. The fastest mile and a quarter to the credit of any horse was made by Whisk Broom II. when he ran the distance in 2:00 at Belmont Park June 28, 1913, with 139 pounds in the saddle.

CLOSE FORT ERIE FINISH

TOP O' TH' MORNING GETS UP TO WIN BY A NOSE FROM SQUEELER.

Several Horses Change Ownership After Winning—Early Light Goes to Meet the Saratoga Jumpers—Track Gossip.

Fort Erie, Ont., August 10.—Top o' th' Morning today redeemed himself for his recent defeat when he came back and beat Squeeler a nose in the three-quarters handicap that served as the feature race of the Niagara Racing Association's offering at Fort Erie this afternoon. Squeeler set a tremendous pace, while Top o' th' Morning came from behind. The latter responded resolutely when called on and just managed to get up in the final strides.

News of the death of Joseph C. Yeager was received at the track this afternoon. His father was summoned from Saratoga a few days ago and was at his beside when the death occurred. The body will be cremated at 3:00 o'clock tomorrow at the Buffalo crematory. The late Mr. Yeager was associated for seven years with Charles Waltring, starting in as a sheet writer at a meeting at Little Rock and afterward became his partner.

H. G. Bedwell decided to send the jumper Early Light to Saratoga and the horse left in John Whalen's car.

Several horses changed hands during the afternoon. James Sands, G. A. Alexandra and R. E. Watkins had claims in for Boxer and in the drawing Alexandra secured the horse for $1,050. C. A. Crew claimed the Canadian-bred Oriana for $950 and B. Alexandra took Last Spark for $850 after he won the third race. G. A. Alexandra claimed Viley for $850.

Mose Goldblatt has disposed of Royal Interest at private sale to C. E. Mikel and Lew Marion has sold the two-year-old Geneva to G. Wilson and McAdams to T. J. Harmon.

Nine claims were put in for Peep Sight and G. A. Alexandra secured him in the drawing. Sam Louis claimed Hops.

B. J. Brannon has turned Kleburne over to W. Perkins who will train him in the future.

Jockey H. Jeffcott, who had the mount on Shepherdess in the seventh race yesterday, crushed the toes of his foot when he was crowded against the fence soon after the start. His injuries will keep him out of the saddle for several days.

John Whalen left for Saratoga this afternoon with the horses he shipped here from New York. Boots, which has been entered in stakes at Toronto, will probably be rested for that meeting. Before leaving trainer Whalen turned the filly Lily Heavens over to E. Rathman, who will race her on the Canadian circuit. Rathman had great success with the Whalen cast-off, Maxim's Choice. Whalen considers Rathman one of the most promising of the younger generation of trainers.

W. Fenwick, who lost the filly, Marianao, out of a selling race a few days back, claimed McAdoo after the latter won yesterday. McAdoo cost his new owner $2,050.

William Garth, Harry Rites and G. P. Sherman will ship their horses from here to Ottawa. Four carloads in all will leave for the Connaught Park Jockey Club's course at the conclusion of the Fort Erie meeting.

E. G. Vivell, Edward Moore and F. S. Fogg will ship to Windsor tomorrow morning. Joe Edward leaves for the same place with the Mirasol Stable's horses tomorrow night.

William McLous, M. Herr and L. Lynch who motored from Detroit to Hamilton and then to Fort Erie, returned to their home in Detroit this afternoon.

Archie Whyte, manager of the Valley Farm Stud, owned by the Messrs. Hendrie, was a visitor at Fort Erie this afternoon. Mr. Whyte is one o the oldest of the Canadian trainers. He is the father of Edward Whyte who looks after Sir John Hendrie's horses. He reports that the stallion Martimas is still vigorous and in splendid health. Besides Martimas, Charles Edward also stands at the Valley Farm.

Jockey S. Wolstenholm was an arrival from the half-mile tracks. He will ride for the H. G. Bedwell stable.

Howard Oots contemplates shipping the two-year-old Atwell to Saratoga. Atwell is one of the most promising of the youngsters racing on the Canadian circuit.

Sea Beach developed a case of fever and was excused from starting in the sixth race.

VALUABLE PURSES FOR AMATEUR MEETINGS.

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., August 10.—Interest in the several hunt meetings which will be run in the vicinity of Philadelphia this fall continues to grow at a rate that bespeaks a higher grade of racing than ever. This is made evident by the general support that is being given Frank J. Bryan, secretary of the Hunts Committee, in the arranging of his program for the meetings for which sanction has been granted. Today Mr. and Mrs. Samuel D. Riddle tendered to Mr. Bryan two new events for the meeting of the Rose Tree Fox Hunting Club at Media, Pa., in October. Mrs. Riddle's offering was a purse of $1,000, to be added to a steeplechase for three-year-olds and over, to be named the Willow King Plate, and Mr. Riddle will also provide a purse of $1,000, to be added to the Long Point Steeplechase, an event he means to make an annual fixture at Rose Tree. The race is named as a tribute to his favorite hunter.

Joseph E. Widener will also enter into the movement to make the racing near Philadalphia more attractive. The death of his father last fall, of course, means that he will omit his usual invitation meeting at his home at Elkins Park, but he today requested the racing secretary of the White Marsh Valley Hunt Club to include in his program for the autumn meeting the Lynnewood Challenge Cup, which has been one of the fixtures of his own meeting at "Lynnewood Farm." Mr. Widener will provide both the purse and cup. The race is a steeplechase for hunters.

LEXINGTON PURSE MONEY TO BE LIBERAL.

Lexington, Ky., April 10.—The Kentucky Association will give $4,000 daily in added money to its program of seven races for each of the ten days of its fall meeting, to open here September 6. This was decided upon at a meeting held here this morning, at which there were present Johnson N. Camden, vice-president; O. H. Chenault, secretary; G. D. Wilson, and racing secretary W. H. Shelley. This means an increase of $7,000 over the amount distributed to horsemen during its meeting last fall.

There will be no purse of less than $500. Secretary Shelley will have program books ready for distribution next week.

A number of improvements in the grounds, grandstand, track and stables were authorized.

KENILWORTH TAKES LATER DATES.

Windsor, Ont., August 10.—In order to avoid conflicting with the Essex County Fair Association's exhibition, the dates for the opening of Kenilworth Park, the new Windsor race course, has been changed from August 30 to September 2. There will be seven days of racing closing September 9.

DEPARTS ON THE ENDLESS JOURNEY.

Joseph C. Yeager died at Niagara Falls yesterday. He was thirty-nine years of age and was raised at or near Cincinnati, O. He was educated at Notre Dame College, Indiana. While quite a young man he was attracted by the speculative side of the turf and became a noted and successful "plunger." It is related of him that before he was twenty-eight years old he had accumulated $458,000 and lost it all in trying to win the $42,000 requisite to make his fortune a half million dollars. In a measure he had recouped his losses and died in comfortable circumstances.

Recently operated on in a Louisville hospital for stomach trouble, he left the institution too soon and was in attendance at the recent Hawthorne meeting. He left here on a steamer for Buffalo and expected to motor from there to Saratoga. At Buffalo his condition became serious and he was taken to the Clifton Hotel at Niagara Falls. He was unable to retain nourishment for a number of days prior to his death.

He was married a little over a year ago to Miss Irene Romaine, daughter of Harry Romaine, and a beautiful and talented young actress. Their home was at French Lick, Indiana. Mr. Yeager was the owner of a small stable of racers at the time of his death. Of him a friend said yesterday:

"He was big-hearted and charitable and hadn't an enemy in the world. He had given away a fortune to distressed followers of racing."

Annual Racing Form

THE INTERNATIONAL AUTHORITY ON AMERICAN RACING

Circulating in the United States, Cuba, Philippine Islands, Canada, Mexico, England, France, Germany, Austro-Hungary, Australia, India, Argentina, Chili, Peru, etc., etc.

THIS BOOK CARRIES

indexed form charts of all recognized racing in the United States, Canada, Cuba and Mexico, has supplanted all others for the use of racing officials and is universally used by jockey clubs throughout the world. Compact, accurate, perfectly printed, with absolutely correct index, on linen paper, lettered, and bound in flexible leather. Contains, besides charts of all recognized racing on American tracks, the American and Canadian time records, scales of weights of various governing bodies and records of jockey mounts in the United States, Canada and Mexico, for the year.

The Special Attention of Students of Form is directed to the method of indexing the charts. The index shows each and every start of all horses that have raced, with firsts, seconds, thirds and track conditions designated on the occasion of each and every start. By means of this innovation it is possible for the user of the Form Book to instantly determine a horse's ability to run on any sort of track concerning which information is desired, as shown in the following example:
